IF YOU HAVE AN ACCIDENT - NOTIFY POLICE IMMEDIATELY

- Write down names, addresses, telephone numbers, and license numbers of persons involved and of witnesses. Also write down the license plate number and state of each vehicle involved.
- Notify your agent promptly or log on to statefarm.com to initiate the claim filing process.
- Do not admit fault, do not discuss the accident with anyone except State Farm or Police.

1. Attached are two identical insurance I.D. cards. They are to be used to verify coverage and include your name, address, policy number, effective date, expiration date and a description of the insured vehicle.

2. One of the cards must be kept in the vehicle at all times, preferably in the glove compartment. It must, upon demand, be shown to a police officer, judge, hearing officer, or a person with whom you or the driver of your car is involved in an accident. You may also ask to see the other driver's I.D. card. A driver's failure to show the I.D. card at the request of a police officer is presumptive evidence of operating an uninsured vehicle for which the driver may be given a summons.

3. The other I.D. card should be kept in a safe place. It must be presented to the Department of Motor Vehicles for any type of registration transaction involving the insured vehicle including renewal, amendment, and replacement of plates or stubs. The card will be held by the Department to verify insurance coverage.

4. If you lose your I.D. cards or discover an error, please contact your agent for replacement or corrected cards. Do not contact the Department of Motor Vehicles.

5. WARNING: These cards become void and useless if the policy identified by the cards expires or is terminated. Use after policy expiration or termination may be a violation of New York law. Fraudulent use of an I.D. card is a misdemeanor. Failure to return registration items on an uninsured motor vehicle can result in license and/or registration suspension or revocation. Operating or permitting operation of an uninsured motor vehicle can result in a heavy fine and/or imprisonment, in addition to a civil penalty.
